

INTERNATIONALIZATION POLICY OF SÜLEYMAN DEMIREL UNIVERSITY FACULTY OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences at Süleyman Demirel University is aligned with our university's internationalization policy and, as its name suggests, focuses on human-centered studies and fields related to human endeavors. In this context, among the primary objectives of our Faculty are to deliver education at international standards, to cultivate generations who research contemporary theories and societal issues, and to develop solutions to universal problems. Committed to universal values in its vision and mission, the faculty seeks to advance with the same sensitivity towards internationalization. In pursuit of this goal, the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences aims to:

- Enhance existing collaborations with internationally recognized foreign universities through new bilateral agreements,
- Encourage the participation of faculty members and students in international projects to help internal stakeholders develop a global perspective,
- Always think one step ahead for international students by providing support that facilitates their academic life in every aspect,
- Support the continuous self-improvement of our students and academics in fundamental areas such as writing in foreign languages and project preparation,
- Implement improvements to increase the diversity and inclusivity of the faculty, thereby enriching the educational environment and enhancing its appeal at the international level,
- Promote the participation of our faculty members in international teaching exchange programs for mutual benefit.
